

"The future of every community is dependent upon its youth."

The 21st Street Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting the advancement of educational, athletic and cultural opportunities for inner-city youth. The primary focus of the Foundation is to fund an annual Legacy Gift and host an annual Holiday Event for inner-city youth.

On Fathers Day, 2010, the Foundation launched its newest program, Daddy's Home. The mission of the Daddy's Home program is to support the involvement of fathers in the lives of their children.

Miracle on 21st Street

For seven years, the 21st Street Foundation has been able to host over 100 under-privileged youth at Toys R Us for a private shopping spree where each child is provided breakfast, a photo with Santa and a gift card to select a gift of their own.
